

Science, Technology & Society

2018 Summer Courses

Professor William Best, Director

STS, CSE, EMC 252-11 Computers, the Internet, and Society (SS) 3 credits

An interactive exploration of the current and future role of computers, the Internet, and related technologies in changing the standard of living, work environments, society and its ethical values. Privacy, security, depersonalization, responsibility, and professional ethics; the role of computer and Internet technologies in changing education, business modalities, collaboration mechanisms, and everyday life. Professor Kalafut (SS 1), online

